

ARROW wants you!

Are you passionate about human rights, and want to provide advocacy support to others at Melba?

Advocacy is a word that means helping people to stand up for themselves.

ARROW is a group that provides advocacy supports to people who access Melba services. ARROW stands for:

Advocacy

Rights

Representation

Outcomes

Worth

ARROW are looking for new people to join.

Joining ARROW is your opportunity to:

- Run human rights roadshows across Melba services and other community-based groups and organisations;
- Provide advocacy support and education to other people supported by Melba; and
- Provide valuable feedback to Melba on the quality of services and participate in a wide range of projects.

Would you like to know more about this group?
Please contact ARROW@melbasupport.com.au or call (03) 8763 4300.