

POLICY STATEMENT

Melba Support Services collects and administers a range of personal and health related information for the purposes of providing high quality services to people with disabilities. The organisation is committed to protecting the privacy of personal and health related information it collects, holds and administers.

Melba Support Services recognises the essential right of individuals to have their information administered in ways which they would reasonably expect – protected on one hand and made accessible to them on the other. These privacy values are reflected in and supported by our core values and Code of Conduct, and are also reflected in our Privacy Policy, which is compliant with the following Australian and Victorian legislation:

- Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)
- Privacy Amendment Act 2017
- Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic)
- Health Records Act 2001 (Vic)
- National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013

Melba Support Services is bound by these laws which impose specific obligations when it comes to handling information. In delivering its services under a Service Agreement with the Victorian Government, and as a registered provider under the NDIS, Melba Support Services complies with the principles set out in the above legislation as minimum standards in relation to handling personal information.

In summary, Melba Support Services will:

- only collect information if it is needed for the performance of one or more of our functions or activities and with the authority of the person or authorised representative
- ensure that individuals know why their information is being collected and how it will be handled
- use and disclose information only for our primary functions or a directly related purpose, or for another purpose, with the person's consent
- ensure people supported and/or their representative understand their right to withdraw their consent at any time and how to do so
- store information securely and protect it from misuse, loss and unauthorised access, modification or disclosure
- retain information for the period required by applicable legislation
- provide individuals and/or their authorised representative with access to their information and the ability to correct incorrect information
- report all eligible data breaches in accordance with the Privacy Amendment (Notifiable Data Breaches) Act 2017 and the Data Breach Preparation and Response guide.
