Melba's Arthur Creative is a welcoming place for artists with disability to gather, learn, grow and shine. Led by artists for artists, we offer a variety of term based workshops Monday to Friday in Ballarat and Lilydale for emerging and established creatives.

Note: Support workers are welcome to join you, but we ask they don't participate unless required.

There's more to Melba

For more than 50 years, Melba has supported Victorians with disability to live life their way. As a registered NDIS provider, we deliver tailored, person-led support, including Supported Independent Living, respite, occupational therapy and complex support. All our services prioritise dignity, choice and human rights.

Why choose Arthur Creative?

ArthurCreative is more than a program – it's a platform for growth, connection and professional development.

We offer:

Creative expression:

Aspace to express yourself your way.

Skill development:

Build your skills with support from professional artists.

Community engagement:

Display your work at local events, festivals, gallery pop ups and our exclusive markets.

Career pathways:

Grow your confidence and connections.

"I love Arthur Creative because it gives me strength and confidence to work on my songs and dances with my new friends."
